1. The meeting began with floral welcome of all the committee members. Principal, Dr. Jain sir felicitated all the committee members.
2. For this meeting, two special invitees were present, Mr. S. B. Bhalerao (Hr. Department) and Prof. R. A. Herole sir (Principal K. K. Wagh Institute of Pharmacy, Chandori).
3. Prof. S. P. Godse presented a small powerpoint about college and introduced about the Ragging redressal mechanism. It covered the important things like what constitutes ragging, in what situations ragging is conducted, intention behind it and it also covered the actions that can be taken by institutes at its level. Also a brief introduction of the committee members was given by him.
4. Then the members discussed about various issues like the severe punishment given by the antiragging law under its section.
5. Principal, Dr Jain sir highlighted some of the severe cases of ragging that has happened in past.
6. Mr. Jadhav- Rector, Boys Hostel, K. K. Wagh Society, suggested that the severe punishments should be informed to the students and for the same banners must be displayed in the college, also he insisted that the antiragging squad should be active during the first month of admission so that no incidence of ragging take place and the students are well aware about this law. He also suggested about displaying board of the committee in the college.
7. Ms. S. R. Patil madam-Rector, Girls Hostel, K. K. Wagh Society, informed the students representative that it's their responsibility to spread the word about such committee and its after effects to the fellow students.
8. Mr. Bhalerao sir suggested that the squad on visit should inform the students about their role while conducting the visit as this will make the students more aware of the law. Also all the members and staff should be very vigilant about ragging and if any case is noticed then such students are counselled well.
9. Mr. Jagdale suggested that during induction programme a law expert should give all the details about section 294, 323 to the students so that working of this committee will be more efficient and no cases will happen.
10. Prof. R. A. Herole suggested that Aman online affidavits should be generated by the students and a copy is to be filled in the college.
11. The meeting ended with Vote of thanks presented by Prof. S. H. Patil.
