Webinar Report

A.Y. 2021-22

COVID-19 & Immunity

Date: 25/05/2021

Time: 3.30 pm to 5.30 pm

Resource person: Dr. Avinash Saoji, Director, PRAYAS, NGO, Amravati.

Online platform: Zoom

Registration link:

Facebook Link: <https://zoom.us/j/6135960075?pwd=cklDTnJWOSsxRGRTaFZEBU1mOFV6Zz09#success>

Objective of the webinar: To spread awareness regarding COVID-19 infection. To know What is Immunity? How to improve Immunity.

Outcome of webinar: Students of K.K.Wagh Education Society as well as faculties and other colleges, attended this webinar. Immunity is the ability to resist a specific infectious disease, meaning you can be exposed to the pathogen that causes it without becoming infected or falling seriously ill. It develops when the cells of your immune system encounter a harmful pathogen - such as a virus or bacterium - mount an immune response, and successfully fight it off. This can happen through infection with the actual disease (natural immunity), or through the introduction of a killed or weakened form of the disease-causing pathogen, or fragment of it, in the case of immunisation (vaccine-induced immunity). This immunity persists because even after the pathogen is eliminated from your body, specialised 'memory cells' linger, ready to spring into action and launch an enhanced response against that pathogen if you encounter it again.

1. The first part of the document is a letter from the President of the United States to the Congress, dated January 1, 1861. It is a formal address, and it is the first of its kind since the signing of the Constitution. The President, James Buchanan, is addressing the Congress, and he is doing so in a very formal and dignified manner. He is discussing the state of the Union, and he is discussing the issues that are facing the country at that time. He is also discussing the role of the President, and he is discussing the responsibilities that he has as the President of the United States. The letter is a very important document, and it is a very significant part of the history of the United States. It is a document that is worth reading, and it is a document that is worth studying. It is a document that is worth preserving, and it is a document that is worth sharing with others. It is a document that is worth keeping, and it is a document that is worth remembering.
